

Cruising down the river with family, friends or colleagues and enjoying good food and wine is a unique way of spending a lunchtime, afternoon or evening. P&S Catering offer menus to suit every taste aboard the Alfred Leroy.

You can choose a one or two course meal with a 1¼ hour cruise, or a luxury menu with a 2½ hour cruise. This can sometimes be extended if you are celebrating a special occasion. All the cruises on the Alfred Leroy take you southwards from Guildford, travelling on a beautiful peaceful stretch of the River Wey & Godalming Navigations. You will pass water meadows and, at St Catherine's, the golden sands which some say gave Guildford its name (old English: Guilden Forde) and the pilgrim's ferry point (used for centuries by the Canterbury Pilgrims).

You will pass through St Catherine's Lock and then turn either at the winding hole, for shorter trips, or at Stonebridge Wharf, where the Wey joins the old Wey & Arun Canal (currently under gradual restoration by volunteers, who hope to reinstate the link to the south coast). The River Wey and Godalming Navigations were built between 1653 (Guildford to Weybridge and the Thames) and 1764 (Guildford to Godalming). Cargoes included gunpowder, made in Chilworth and transported by water for safety. Nowadays the National Trust look after this ancient waterway.

THE ALFRED LEROY

The Alfred Leroy commences the season at the end of April and continues until mid-October. Suggested departure times are: 12.00 or 12.30 for lunch, 3.30 for tea and 7.00 or 7.30 for dinner. For evening trips in the autumn it can be worth starting your cruise a little earlier so you can see some of the River Wey's beautiful surroundings before dusk. It is a stipulation of the National Trust licence that the Alfred Leroy is tied up by 10pm. Disembarkation is within 15 minutes of docking.

The Alfred Leroy is closed for lunch and tea on Monday and Friday

Please Note:
 You will be able to board the Alfred Leroy about ten minutes before departure. The Boat House is a working yard and does not have extensive waiting facilities. The town centre is a five minute walk and the Boatman pub is two minutes away for a pre- or post-cruise drink. Coach parties are advised to disembark at the Yvonne Arnaud Theatre, 250 metres along the road. Car parking is in Millbrook Car Park, next to the Boat House, and charges are (as we go to press) £1 per hour between 8am and 6pm (though Sundays are £1.50 per visit), with an evening charge of a flat £1 for 6-10pm (Sunday: 5-10pm). If Millbrook is full, other car parks are within 15 minutes' walk. Please leave plenty of time to park, as late arrivals will shorten the length of your trip.

On board, you will find seating at fixed tables raised on platforms, with a narrow central aisle. Tables 4, 6, 8 & 10 seat up to six people (four for luxury menus), and tables 1, 2, 3, 5, 7 & 9 take four people. A licensed bar and good value wine list are available with all menus except Teatime Favourite. The wine list is available on request or online. The Alfred Leroy is available for groups of between 25 and 49 people, except for luxury menus which have a maximum of 40. You may book for fewer but will be asked to pay for 25. The exceptions are the fixed menu Sunday Lunch trips and Tea & Biscuit trips (see menu insert for details).

4 Making the final payment: Your final party numbers and the balance due on each invoice need to be received no later than 14 days before your trip. No alterations can normally be accepted after this deadline.

5 Methods of payment: For the cruise element of your trip, you can pay Guildford Boat House by cash, cheque or card. For the meal, you can pay P&S Catering by cash or cheque. Payments for both should be sent to Guildford Boat House.
